ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH

St. Anne Communications Guidelines

Revised 05-03-2019

St. Anne Roman Catholic Parish Communications Guidelines

These guidelines provide an efficient and effective process for submission of information to communicate and engage with our parish community. All information published by our parish will be in alignment with our Mission and Vision Statements and will promote the further building of God’s Kingdom on earth.

St. Anne Roman Catholic Parish Mission Statement

St. Anne Roman Catholic Parish in Gilbert, Arizona is a multicultural community of disciples, formed by the word, nourished by the Eucharist, and committed to stewardship through prayer, respect, and service.

Precedence and priority will always be evaluated for what kind of communication message is put out through the various forms of media formats here at St. Anne guided by our Pastor.

Communication Formats

Bulletin - Weekly	Bulletin Inserts
Digital Media Boards	Flocknote
Email Blasts	Pulpit Announcements
ProPresenter (Projection)	Speaking Before or After Mass
Web Site	Web Site Events Page
Facebook	Twitter
YouTube	Vimeo
Parish Front Office	Parish Information Center
Parish Mobile App	Courtyard Displays, Banners and Tables
Press Page	Cork Boards

General Guidelines:

These critical questions are provided to help guide a ministry that plans to share information for communication in the various medias at St. Anne.

- Is it conducive to the life and mission of our parish?
- Does the message uphold the moral teachings of the Catholic Church?
- Does it meet the mission and purpose of St. Anne Roman Catholic Parish?
- Does it offer opportunities to grow in our faith within our community of St. Anne?
- Is it in line with the mission and vision of the Diocese of Phoenix?

General Guidelines (Continued):

Selecting the appropriate format for communicating your message as well as following the proper submission procedures will facilitate the efficient communication of your message to our parish community.

- Submissions will be reviewed and approved by the Communications Director under the guidance of the Pastor.
- The Parish reserves the right to edit submissions to correct errors or conserve space as needed.
- Submissions should be short and concise.
- Submitters must include contact information (name, ministry, phone number, email).
- Submissions must be made electronically through email or the St. Anne web site.

Below you will find the requirements for each type of communication format.

Bulletin Inserts	Events that warrant an insert are those that appeal to a large portion of the parish. Inserts for a specific event will be included in the bulletin only once per calendar year. The submitter will be required to assist in making copies and to arrange volunteers to “stuff” the inserts into the bulletins the week of publication. (Usually on Saturday morning.) Inserts can be displayed when viewing the bulletin online as long as an electronic copy is provided when submitting a request. www.stanneaz.org/communications It is also recommended that an event with high visibility be submitted for inclusion on the St. Anne web site carousel banners and that it is posted on Flocknote for parishioners to see.
Bulletin - Weekly	Submissions must be received 10 days prior to the weekend that the information is to be included in the bulletin. The bulletin goes to print one week prior to distribution. During holiday seasons, significantly earlier submission deadlines may apply. Electronic submissions only... no hardcopy or verbal submissions. Submissions must be sent electronically on the St Anne web site; www.stanneaz.org/communications Approved submissions will be placed in the bulletin as space allows. Information concerning ongoing programs and activities will not be printed every week, but will rotate in and out of the bulletin throughout the year. Highlight activities for regular groups is encouraged. Utilizing Flocknote for regular group activity is highly recommended as a method of keeping your ministry parishioners engaged.

Cork Boards	Only approved postings are permitted. Space is limited so approved postings will be removed after an appropriate time to make room for new information as needed. Non-approved or randomly pinned fliers will be removed. No business ads or solicitation cards are permitted.
Courtyard Displays, Banners, Tables	Please visit the St. Anne website to submit a request to set up tables or banners in our courtyard. www.stanneaz.org/communications Once your request for a live event or banner display in the courtyard is approved and scheduled by the Director of Parish Administration under the guidance of our Pastor, your approved event will be added to our Facility Scheduler program and Parish Calendar. Your banner may then be displayed in one of the designated areas. All Parish Ministry displays must be designed with St. Anne marketing in mind. Please visit the St. Anne Communications page to download the “St. Anne Style Guide” or to contact the Communications Group for assistance and approval. www.stanneaz.org/communications Banners must fit the designated size and hanging requirements.
Digital Media Boards	The Digital Media Boards are located in the narthex of the church and are designed to offer a quick glimpse of select information. This information is typically a focused effort in keeping with a theme, season or activity that is during that month. The timing and duration of the displayed media is run on a schedule and calculated to take advantage of each opportunity for viewing when parishioners and guests are visiting the parish. Nothing should prevent the media board from being seen by the viewers, since multiple ministries/events will always be on display. Requests to use the digital media boards are submitted on the St. Anne web site. Complete the online information form and include all pertinent information along with any preferred graphics and photos. www.stanneaz.org/communications The Communications Group will assist in creating the graphics for the Digital Media Boards. Visit the communications page on the St Anne web site to download the specifications, requirements and templates if you would like to submit a finished graphic for approval. www.stanneaz.org/communications

Email Blasts	Emails can be sent from the parish to subscribers. These emails provide select information generally at a high level of interest, usually requested by the Pastor or at the request of staff members. It is not a practice for blanket emails to be sent for activities that are on-going or part of regular ministry needs. Email communication can happen within ministry areas. Communication within Flocknote is highly preferred and highly encouraged.
Facebook	Facebook posts include bulletin items, reminders of upcoming events, general information, photos of events, and reposts from the Diocese of Phoenix, the Vatican and other reputable Catholic sources. On occasion hand created posts are made by the Communications Group to help encourage interest in specific topics, events or ministry information. The Communications Group may also share live streaming of events.
